

The Basics of Digitizing

Sponsored by:

S·T·I·T·C·H·E·S

Today's Presenter

KEN PARSONS

- Accomplished fashion illustrator, embroidery designer and nationally-known instructor in the world of embroidery and fashion design.
- Has served as president of the American Embroidery Council and as a founding member of the Embroidery Hall of Fame.
- Has taught Embroidery and Lace design at The Fashion Institute of Technology for the State University of New York for the past 12 years

Agenda

In this webcast, you'll receive a live overview of basic digitizing functions, including:

- Auto-digitizing
- Semi-automatic digitizing
- Manual digitizing
- Basic editing
- Working with lettering
- Outputting to different file formats

You can submit your questions to Ken at any time through the questions box located on your toolbar

Audience Q & A

Contact Ken Parsons at:
ken@kenparsonsdesigns.com

You can also friend Ken on the Stitches
Magazine Social Site at:
<http://www.stitchesmagsocialsite.com>

You can access a recording of this presentation starting tomorrow at www.asicentral.com/webinars